SWOC Analysis

A. Strength:

- (i) The relationship between students and teachers in the department is very good.
- (ii) Students and teachers participate in curriculum and co-curricular activities together.
- (iii) Obedient student in the classroom.
- (iv) Students actively participate in structured learning.

B. Weaknesses:

- (i) Most of the students are first-generation learners.
- (ii) Economic backwardness of the student.
- (iii) After the pandemic situation it is very much difficult to continue all the normal work process.

C.Opportunities:

- (i) Students can get the facility of ICT-based teaching and learning through the virtual and smart classroom.
- (ii) Students from backward areas are becoming aware of environment and society.
- (iii) Students are made aware of jobs after graduation through career counseling programs.

D.Challenges:

- (i) The retardation of academics during the COVID situation has created a lot of challenges.
- (iii) Irregularities of the students due to financial constraints.

Suggested Road map keeping students' interest in the core and ensuring better visibility

Students will be made aware about NEP 2020. Separate workshops will be conducted with the students of the Dept. After opening the college in an offline system students are encouraged to come to the college regularly. For this purpose, we organize various programs to celebrate the important days on the college premises.

In these programs, students are encouraged to come and participate.

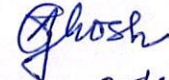

Best Practice of the Dept.

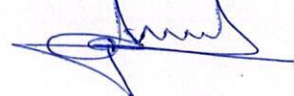

Motivational classes on Ethics & Values are taken by the faculty.

We make students aware of the cleanliness of the college and community.

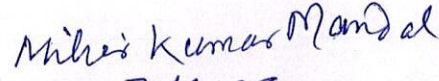

Our best practice is to go green at work.
